

Payroll Deductions

Employee acknowledges and agrees that if employee has any debt or property belonging to MAPP or its subsidiaries that has not been returned as of the employee's last date of employment, then such debt or the value of such property may be deducted from employee's final paycheck and/or employee's leave balance.